

TRAFFIC ALERT FOR COLISEUM AREA FOR MAY 20

Shuttle Service Available at Sheraton Greensboro at Four Seasons

(GREENSBORO, NC) - The Greensboro Coliseum Complex will host multiple, simultaneous events on Saturday, May 20, including a capacity crowd for country music star Eric Church in concert.

The Greensboro Coliseum Complex, Greensboro Department of Transportation and Greensboro Police Department (GPD) advise all patrons to plan to arrive early, and carpooling is strongly encouraged. The GPD will be managing major intersections in the vicinity of the Coliseum Complex and variable messaging systems will be deployed to advise motorists of parking and traffic information.

Patrons are also encouraged to utilize the UNCG parking lot (located at the northeast corner of Gate City Blvd. and Coliseum Blvd.) for convenient access to the north end of the Coliseum and post-concert exiting.

In addition, complimentary shuttle bus service will be available Saturday evening to transport patrons to and from the Sheraton Greensboro at Four Seasons (3121 Gate City Blvd.) to the Coliseum Complex. The shuttle can be boarded at Entry F at the Sheraton Greensboro and will drop off at the entrance to the ACC Hall of Champions at the Coliseum Complex. Continuous shuttle bus service will run from 6 p.m. – 12:30 a.m. on May 20.

Greensboro Coliseum parking lots will open at 4 p.m. for concertgoers and doors to the arena will open at 6:30 p.m.
