Tye Tribbett

With one of the most relevant voices of this generation, a sound that reaches the heart of young as well as old, Tye Tribbett creates a dynamic new caliber of music. His music cannot be classified as one genre, but his unique, abstract way encompasses all. Often heralded as the "Elvis of Gospel", the multiple Grammy, Soul Train, Stellar and Dove award winning Gospel artist has over 30 years in music and ministry and career sales exceeding 1.3 million units across 6 commercially released albums. Tribbett is the pastor of Live Church Orlando along with wife Shante'.

Deitrick Haddon

Best known for progressive Gospel and contemporary styles of music, three-time Grammy Award nominee and GMA Dove Award winner Deitrick Haddon launched his solo career with "Lost & Found" in 2002 which peaked at #1 on Billboard's Top Gospel Charts. The album received wide critical acclaim and spawned the hit, "Sinner's Prayer". Haddon released "Deitrick Haddon & Hill City Worship Camp" in 2017, which spawned the hits "A Billion People" and "Glory".

James Fortune

The son of a preacher, James Fortune is a Houston-bred, singer, songwriter and producer. Fortune's current release, "Dear Future Me", intertwines trust with the act of forgiving self, and realizing that your future will flourish with God's grace. The project encourages healing and is a reflective journey that Fortune deems as one of his most transparent and honest records, thus far.

Anthony Brown

A music prodigy, Anthony Brown began playing the piano at the age of 3 years old. Brown has gone on to hone his gifts to become an unparalleled talent, music influencer and gifted songwriter. Brown and his longtime ensemble, Group TherAPy, have been featured on national platforms including the Essence Festival, Bishop TD Jakes' Megafest, the New Orleans Jazz Festival and more.

Ruth La'Ontra

Singer-Songwriter Ruth La'Ontra's music career started in 2013 with the release of 'So Good', by Tyscot records. The album charted on the Billboard charts at #19 on the Top Gospel Albums. She was nominated at the 30th Stellar Awards for 'New Artist of the Year' and 'Traditional Female Vocalist of the Year' categories. She also released her second studio album, "I Got You (Live)" in September of 2017.
